DIGICORP
NOTES TO (UNAUDITED) FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2002

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The financial statements presented in this report have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim reporting and include all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation. These financial statements have not been audited by an independent accountant. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations for interim reporting. These financial statements for the three and six month periods ended December 31, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results, which may be expected for an entire fiscal year.

NOTE 2 - EARNINGS (LOSS) PER SHARE

Earnings (loss) per common share have been computed based on net income (loss) divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, the Company reported a loss during the period ended December 31, 2002. The company presently has no source of revenues. Therefore, the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on obtaining additional capital and financing. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

Item 2 MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION
(Period Ending December 31, 2002)
Unaudited Financial Data

The discussion and analysis contained herein should be read in conjunction with the preceding financial statements and the information contained in the Company's 10SB. Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters discussed in this 10 QSB contain forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 27a of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21e of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are based on management's beliefs and assumptions, current expectations, estimates, and projections. Statements that are not historical facts, including without limitation statements which are preceded by, followed by or include the words "believes," "anticipates," "plans," "expects," "may," "should," or similar expressions are forward-looking statements. Many of the factors that will determine the company's future results are beyond the ability of the Company to control or predict. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties and, therefore, actual results may differ materially. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to the Company, or persons acting on its behalf, are expressed qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements. The Company disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Important factors that may include, but are not limited to: the risk of a significant natural disaster, the inability of the Company to obtain a suitable company for a business combination, a business combination with a company that proves later on not to have the ability to effectively compete in the marketplace, as well as general market conditions, competition and pricing, and other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports, copies of which are available upon request from the Company.

Plan of Operations-

The Company's plan of operation for the coming year is to identify and acquire a favorable business opportunity. The Company does not plan to limit its options to any particular industry, but will evaluate each opportunity on its merits. The Company anticipates that its owners, affiliates, and consultants will provide it with sufficient capital to continue operations until the end of the year of 2003, but there can be no assurance that this expectation will be fully realized.

The Company does not expect to generate any meaningful revenue or incur operating expenses unless and until it acquires an interest in an operating company.

CERTIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 302
OF THE SARBANES-OXLEY ACT OF 2002

I, Gregg B. Colton, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this quarterly report on Form 10-QSB of DigiCorp.
2. Based on my knowledge, this quarterly report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report.
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this annual report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this annual report.
4. I am responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14) for the registrant and have:
 - a) designed such disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this quarterly report is being prepared;
 - b) evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures as of a date within 90 days prior to the filing date of this annual report (the Evaluation Date); and
 - c) presented in this annual report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures based on our evaluation as of the Evaluation Date;
5. I have disclosed, based on the most recent evaluation, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):

a) all significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data and have identified for the registrant's auditors any material weaknesses in internal controls; and

b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal controls.

6. I have indicated in this annual report whether or not there were significant changes in internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of the most recent evaluation, including any corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
