PART III. NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2020 (the "Quarterly Report") cannot be filed within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. We previously filed a current report on Form 8-K with respect to the Quarterly Report to avail ourselves of the 45-day grace period provided by an order issued by the SEC. Such order allows a registrant up to an additional 45 days after the original due date of certain reports required to be filed with the SEC if a registrant's ability to file such report timely is affected due to COVID-19. In such 8-K, we acknowledged experiencing disruptions including, but not limited to, the limited availability of key Company personnel and professional advisors who are needed to prepare the Quarterly Report due in part to suggested and mandated social quarantining and work from home orders. This delayed the Company's ability to prepare and complete the Quarterly Report which delays have continued. We are currently in the process of completing and finalizing the Form 10-Q but need additional time due primarily to the foregoing factors. Such delays could not be eliminated by the Company without unreasonable effort or expense. We expect to file the Quarterly Report within the extension period provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

If the answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

PART IV (3)

We generated revenues of approximately $1,117,000 and $2,787,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. Such revenues were primarily derived from sorbent product sales. The decrease from the prior year period is primarily due to decreased generation in the coal fired power sector principally due to renewables and low natural gas prices. For the three months March 31, 2020 and 2019, we had a net loss of approximately $1,774,000 and $1,059,000. The change in net loss for the three months ended March 31, 2020 compared to the prior year period is primarily due to the decrease in sales partially offset by the decrease in total costs and expenses principally due to the decrease in cost of sales.
